

Every single day, 30,000 children across the world are dying as a result of extreme poverty.

20% of the world's population lives on less than 50p a day.

1.1 billion people in the world don't have access to clean water.

70% of the 1.3 billion people who live in extreme poverty are female.

There are over 40 million people living with HIV and AIDS worldwide. Over 95% live in developing countries.

In low income countries, one out of every 10 children dies before the age of five. In wealthier nations, this number is only one out of 143.

Young people, 15-24 years old, account for half of all new HIV infections worldwide more than 6,000 become infected with HIV every day.

46% of girls in the world's poorest countries have no access to primary education.